

GERMAN PRISONER MARCHING TO THE REAR ON NOV. 13.
(Photo from American Press Assn.)

"THE PICARDIE,"
ONE OF THE NEWEST
TYPES OF FRENCH OBSERVATION BALLOONS, ASCENDING
BEHIND THE LINES ON THE SOMME
PRIOR TO A GENERAL ATTACK.

(Photo © American
Press Assn.
From Medem.)

FRENCH OFFICER ON THE ARGONNE ENTERING HIS BOMB-
PROOF, WHICH IS PROVIDED
WITH A CURTAIN TO BE LOWERED WHEN
GAS ATTACKS
BEGIN.

(Photo from Pach
Photo News,
Inc.)

IN THE TRAIL
OF THE REAPERS.
A German
Soldier
Beside a
Lonely
Grave on the Eastern Front.

FRENCH GIRLS WHO HAVE REPLACED MEN
IN A MUNITIONS
FACTORY SALLYING FORTH
TO LUNCH.

(Photo © American Press Assn. From Medem.)

M. GEORGES CLEMENCEAU,
Journalist and Former Prime Minister of the French
Republic, and Two French Officers on the Somme
Front, Watching the Manoeuvres of a Military
Aeroplane. (Photo © by U. & U.)

Sight of the First Aeroplane Over German East Africa Struck Terror Into the Hearts of the Natives, Many Thinking It Was a Spirit from the Skies, Falling on Their Knees in Prayer and Worship.
(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)